The primary focus of Adam Zwicker's practice involves the defense of commercial transportation litigation. Adam has specific experience representing members of the trucking industry in personal injury, property damage, as well as wrongful death claims arising from commercial motor vehicle accidents, and defending cargo claims under the Carmack Amendment. His experience also encompasses a wide range of general civil litigation, including first and third-party (PIP) auto accidents, premises liability, and insurance coverage and indemnity claims. He also represents railroads and maritime carriers in property damage and personal injury matters.
